

Inter-M RM-911W Surface Wall-mountable Remote Paging Microphone Station

The RM-911W is a surface wall-mounted remote microphone station featuring a ten- key keypad for message playback selection. Key selection allows activation of pre- recorded message.

The unit features a unidirectional dynamic tear-drop, push-to-talk hand held microphone with a retractable coil type cable extension. An audio signal level meter is provided for displaying the signal levels at the input or output.

The unit displays the ready / busy state status via a LED display. The RM-911W is designed for use with the ARM-911A. Automated Remote Messaging controller. It can be remote powered from the ARM-911A for a distance up to 300 meters. It requires to be locally powered by an optional 24VDC when installed distance above 300 meters.

Features

- Direct broadcasting of Emergency Message
By pressing one of 10 instant play buttons, message file can be directly played.
- Remote Control of ARM-911
Using RM-911D/W, emergency message of ARM-911 can be controlled at remote place.
- Emergency Broadcasting using MIC
Using MIC of RM-911D/W, emergency voice broadcasting can be done at remote place.
- External Adaptor (OPTION)
External Adaptor can be used to extend the operable cable length.
When external adaptor is used the power con-sumption ARM-911 is decreased.